DETAILED ACTION

1. It would be of great assistance to the Office if all incoming papers pertaining to a filed application carried the following items:

1. Application number (checked for accuracy, including series code and serial no.).
2. Group art unit number (copied from most recent Office communication).
3. Filing date.
4. Name of the examiner who prepared the most recent Office action.
5. Title of invention.
6. Confirmation number (See MPEP § 503).

This is non-final rejection examiner regrets for the delay of the prosecution.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1,7,18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Shiu et al (6,624,767).

4. Shui discloses a method of receiving code symbols corresponding to an interleaved encoded packet, storing the code symbols separately in first, second and third memories (see figs. 3 and 4) and inputting the stored code symbols to the decoder (518) in a mobile communication system, the method comprising the steps of: generating read addresses(514) to read the code symbols according to the size of the encoder packet; and reading the code symbols at the read addresses from the memories and outputting the read code symbols to the decoder (518) ( see col.5, line 64 to col.6, line 9 and figs. 5-7) The code symbols are stored at different positions of the memories.(see fig.3)

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 8-17 and 31-42 are allowed.
6. Claims 2-6, and 19-30 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed 5/15/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that Shui does not disclose generating read addresses to read the code symbols according the sizes of packet and also argues that the memory bank of Shui are eight as oppose to the current claimed invention which are only three.
8. As per the size of the packet it is inherent that the symbols of shiu have predetermined size and the read addresses are generated based on the code symbols. ( See col.14, lines 47 -61) . As per the number of memories being more than three. Shui does teach  $n$  to  $n+7$  memories. (See fig.3 and col.12, lines 37-49 and claims 6-8).

Conclusion

9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
